DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 25-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Sormunen et al., US Pat. No. 6,112,078.

3. As to claims 25 and 29, Sormunen teaches a system and method for claiming a user-specific website where a website request is made for the user-specific website and at least one phone number is associated with the user-specific website, the system comprising:

a phone calling device; and a phone call data receiving device coupled to said phone calling device (col. 3, line 49 – col. 4, line 11; col. 5, line 58 – col. 6, line 5), wherein:

the website request is performed at a system website by a user, establishing a website claim to the user-specific website (col. 3, line 49 – col. 4, line 11; col. 5, line 58 – col. 6, line 5);
and

the website request causes a personal identification number to be sent to the phone call data receiving device through said at least one phone number associated with the user-specific website (col. 3, line 49 – col. 4, line 11; col. 5, line 58 – col. 6, line 5).

4. As to claims 26 and 30, Sormunen teaches the system and method wherein the website claim is completed by accessing the system website and entering the personal identification number (col. 3, line 49 – col. 4, line 11; col. 5, line 58 – col. 6, line 5).
5. As to claims 27 and 31, Sormunen teaches the system and method wherein the phone call data receiving device is a call paging device (col. 4, lines 12-24).
6. As to claims 28 and 32, Sormunen teaches the system and method wherein the phone call data receiving device is a facsimile device (Fig. 1).

Allowable Subject Matter
